

Estadio Unico Villa Mercedes, San Luis

RETENTION

Summary

Ciudad de Villa Mercedes, Pcia. de San Luis (Argentina)

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Products | EcoBloc light, EcoBloc flex |
| Application | Retention |
| Storage capacity | 542 m ³ (2304 EcoBloc light and EcoBloc flex) |
| Collecting surface area | 24,000 m ² |
| Specifics | <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 33.6 m x 5.6 m x 2.9 m• 8 Layers• 7 installers, installed in 3 days• 2304 EcoBloc light and EcoBloc flex• 1.5 mm membrane used |

New football stadium in the province of San Luis

Estadio Unico Villa Mercedes is a new football stadium in the province of San Luis, western Argentina. This municipality is pushing sustainable development and decided to use rainwater to cover 70% of the stadium's annual non potable water consumption. The GRAF EcoBloc system serves as an underground rainwater reservoir from which toilets, cleaning water and irrigation systems are fed from.

